Munson Liner Still Aground At Gorda Cay

Miami, Fla. Aug. 14—(AP)—The Nassau correspondent of the Miami Daily News today advised the paper by radio that the Munson Line Munamar, which went aground at Gorda Cay, near Great Abaco, Bahamas Sunday, still was stranded this morning.

Passengers were removed yesterday by the Colonial government tug Lady Cordeaux and the schooner Halcyon and were quartered last night in the Colonial Hotel at Nassau, a winter resort hostelry which was opened especially to accommodate them.

Wrecking tugs will be necessary to free the liner, which is hard aground on sandy bottom. The ship was not believed to have been seriously damaged.
